

Help citizens keep their telephones for use in obtaining services and communications the phone owners wish to avail themselves of, instead of allowing any commercial venture to use our private phones for their financial benefit. We pay for the phone service, not the commercial interests.